Dear Sir,

NO. 1567 SHIP - SCANTLING PLANS.

Referring to our letter of the 10th October and your reply of the 14th October relating to a proposed motor cargo ship of 9,500 tons deadweight the order for this ship has now been placed with us and the ship is to be built to the class of your society at Wallsend Shipyard under the above number.

We enclose a further copy each of the midship section and profile approved by you so that you may certify these and forward the same to your Newcastle office. Please also add the number of the ship to the copies in your possession.

Yours faithfully,

For SWAN, HUNTER, & WIGHAM RICHARDSON, LIMITED,

I. B. Boelen
