Donegall Square East,

Belfast, 14th March, 1939.

The Secretary,
LONDON.

Dear Sir,

"LLANDAFF CASTLE"

With reference to your letter of the 7th instant approving amended pumping arrangement for above vessel, we are informed by Messrs. Harland & Wolff Ltd., that Nos. 4 and 7 tanks will be run up from the sea, but that they cannot be pumped up by the ballast pump.

We are, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

The Surveyors.

Dear

The Secretary

London

My dear Sir,

I am sorry to hear of the death of your son.

I am sure that you will find the arrangements for his funeral and the other matters connected with his death, as well as the arrangements for his burial, to be in the hands of the authorities concerned.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Sir,

LONDON

The Secretary
