Lloyd's Register of Shipping,

71, Fenchurch Street, E.C. 3.

27th June, 1921.

Dear Sirs,

S.

I have to acquaint you that Mr. Brewer, the representative of the new Owners of the ex-German Steamer "D. A. D. C. 76" states that this vessel is proceeding from Hull to your port, where it is intended to fit a deep tank.

This vessel has been under survey at Hull for some time with a view to classification, and the Surveyors at that port have been requested to forward their reports without delay, so that full instructions may be sent to you as to what remains to be done to complete the survey.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

The Surveyors,
ROTTERDAM.

Secretary.
