Dear Sir,

We duly received your letter of the 13th instant respecting steamer "MIRLO" and beg to inform you that we have today received letter from the owner, which translated reads as follows:-

In regard to your letter of the 17th instant we beg to inform you, that in a letter from Baumont dated 22nd April the master states, that the bolted doors in the cofferdam bulkhead, 4 in numbers, were rivetted at Baumont, before the loading was started and this is supposed to be in order, but we have, I am sorry to say, no information if they have had Lloyd's Surveyor to examine the work, but we take it for granted as it was a requirement from the builders."

We are, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully
