A. Scott Esq.,
Lloyds Register of Shipping,

LONDON, E.C. 3.

Dear Sir,

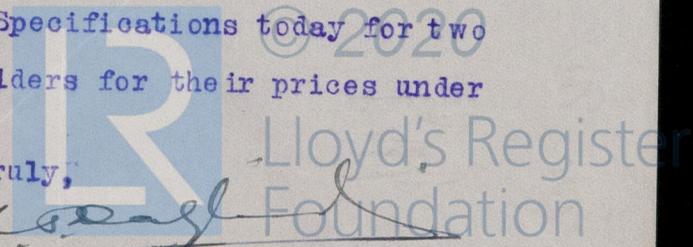

s.s. "QUEENWORTH" - I thank you for your letter of yesterday's date, and I extremely regret the position of Lloyds' Committee. You can send the Certificates back and the matter I suppose will have to rest for the present. I shall make the matter public through the Shipowners Association. It may be the correct ruling of Lloyds, but I consider it extremely hard on me, that shipowners who have ships on the stocks, and, have been there for months at a time, can launch them and receive a certificate when finished, dated with the date on which they are ^{finished} built. I shall be glad to hear what you have to say on this point?

I am sending out Specifications today for two new ships, and I have asked Builders for their prices under the B.C. Rules.

Yours truly,
