6th January, 1920.

Dear Sirs,

I was duly favoured with your letter of the 2nd instant (unsigned) regarding the Steel S.S. No. 225, "LUSIADA", now being completed to your order by Messrs. Napier & Miller, and the Society's Surveyors at Glasgow have been requested to give the matter the necessary attention.

In reply to the inquiry contained in the last clause of your letter, I beg to state that a fee of £150 will be charged for the Survey and Classification of the Hull and Machinery of the vessel in addition to the usual fee for the Survey of the Refrigerating Machinery and Insulation.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Messrs. The Blue Star Line Ltd.,
Holland House,
Bury Street, E.C.3.

Secretary.
