The Secretary,

LONDON.

Dear Sir,

S. S. "KINGSWOOD"

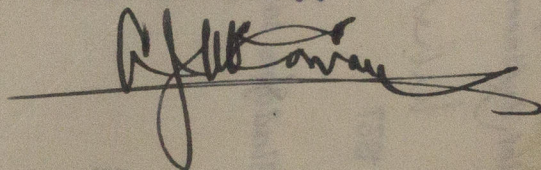

Reverting to your previous letters on this case, I have to advise you that, as requested by Owners Agents and Lloyd's Agents at Adelaide, I am arranging to leave here tomorrow for Port Pirie in connection with the temporary repairs effecting to this vessel.

I am advised that Mr. Ackland Horman is at present laid up with illness and that the Contractors are considerably behind the time for completion of these repairs.

The matter will have my best attention.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,
