Dear Sirs,

s.s. "KINGSWOOD".

We thank you for your letter of yesterday's date and are much obliged to you for enclosing translation of the cablegram received from Mr McCowan in relation to the above vessel.

We communicated to you this morning the reply which had been despatched by us last night, also copy of the cable which was received by us this morning from our Agents at Adelaide.

As you will appreciate, it is very essential indeed that the cost of permanent repairs, even if only an estimate, should be in our possession at the earliest possible moment in order to enable us to consider the matter from all points of view including that of Constructive Total Loss.

We have your kind promise that you will despatch a cable to your Representative on these lines, for which we are very much obliged.

Yours faithfully,
FOR LONDON HEAD OFFICE
