9th January, 1937.

Dear Sirs,

S. With reference to the case of your steamer "KINGSWOOD", I beg to acquaint you that in compliance with your request over the telephone this morning, I have had pleasure in cabling to Mr. McCowan at Port Pirie to the effect that you have requested your Agents to ascertain as soon as possible the estimated cost of permanent repairs, as until this information is forthcoming temporary repairs cannot be authorised, and instructing Mr. McCowan to collaborate with your Agents with a view to expediting the production of this estimate.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Assistant Secretary.
