LONDON, E.C.3.

Dear Sir,

"SUZY".

We are in receipt of your letter of the 9th inst., from which we note that it has been decided to defer further consideration of the above matter for one month and that you wish us to advise you at that time of any repairs carried out to this steamer and of any change in her position.

In accordance with your request, we shall write you further during the first week in July furnishing you with the details you require.

Yours faithfully,

For
