

9th November, 1905.

Messrs. The Dublin Dockyard Co.,

"Shellie".

The following particulars of the tonnage of the above named vessel are forwarded for your information.

|                     | Tons.                 |
|---------------------|-----------------------|
| Under Deck          | 258.87                |
| Break               | 35.44                 |
| Bridge              | 17.14                 |
| Side House          | 1.64                  |
| Light & Air         | 26.38                 |
| Excess of hatchways | 18.07          |
|                     | 357.54 Gross Tonnage. |

|                                |      |                              |
|--------------------------------|------|------------------------------|
| Allowance for Propelling Power | Tons | 215.71                       |
| " Crew Space                   |      | 35.97                        |
| Master's Room and :            |      |                              |
| Boatswains Store:              |      | 10.72                        |
|                                |      | 262.40                |
|                                |      | 95.14 Registered Ton. |

Received 10/11/05
ack - v -

Lloyd's Register
Foundation

W282-0024