

for Mr Sladden.

VARVASSI

which was out of the port when the incident occurred on his return Mr Pashett complained to him that he had made the journey to the ship, but no attempt had been made to prepare anything for examination, and that certain amount of treachery with the Gestapo had then taken place in consequence.

Pashett is due to come to the UK on leave about the middle of the present month.

Noted.

Interview Mr Pashett
when he arrives
in this country
J.H.S.

W311-0114