ADMIN.

Dear Sirs,

We have your letter of the 22nd February regarding the law action pending, arising out of the loss of the tug "SECURITY" in December, 1946.

We confirm that Mr. Young, one of our Surveyors who carried out a survey on the vessel in 1944, is now in Japan, and that Mr. Widgery is at present on the Society's London Outdoor Staff.

Mr. Widgery will, of course, be available to produce his own report, and we can arrange for one of our clerical staff, Mr. C.F. Algate, to produce in court that written by Mr. Young.

We also confirm that it will be necessary for a sub-poena to be served on any member of our staff whom you wish to appear in court or to interview regarding this case.

Yours faithfully,

W.J.R.

Chief Executive.
