S.S. "WILLODALE".

With further reference to your letter of the 9th August and subsequent correspondence, we shall be glad to learn if Mr. McCallum is to attend in the London Office prior to the enquiry fixed for Monday, 20th instant, with regard to the loss of the above ship. It is anticipated this will be the case but if not we shall be obliged if the structural plans of the ship, together with the First Entry Report and shell plan, if available, could be forwarded to this Office for examination.

With regard to the extracts from the journals of Mr. Ronald and Mr. Sowden required by your letter of the 18th August, it is proposed to certify these extracts under my signature but if another arrangement is desired, perhaps we may be informed.

Yours faithfully,

E. R. Edgar
