

OF HULL.

20th April, 1940.

s.s. "AMPLEFORTH", 4576 tons gross of Cardiff, on the 9th April, 1940, and subsequent dates, whilst afloat and in dry dock in the King George Dock, Hull on account of reported collision with the s.s. "NAILSEA MANOR", in Hampton Roads, Va. on the 14th January, 1940, and consequent grounding.

continued as classed with fresh record of survey 4,40, subject to permanent repairs to stem and shell plating being effected and to the windlass cylinders being renewed at the first convenient opportunity.

dry and perishable cargoes.

A. R. Liddon.

2021
Lloyd's Register
Foundation
W328-0176