S/S "AVELONA STAR"

The Owners of this vessel state they have ^{removed and} sold one of the single ended boilers of this vessel to a Firm in France, who are asking for the certificate.

It appears that one boiler test certificate was issued for the two single ended boilers (one of which ^{each} still ^{is} remains on the "Avelona Star" now at Greenock)

It is submitted the Surveyors at Greenock be requested to visit the vessel at Greenock and amend the mark on the boiler to 17055_A ^{with} and arrange ~~for~~ the Glasgow Surveyors for fresh certificates to be issued, one No.17055 and one 17055A the former for the purchasers of the boiler in France, the latter for the Owners of the vessel with the other boiler still on board.
