7th December, 1903.

Gentlemen,

M

It appears from a letter received from the Society's Surveyor at Appledore that the Bk. "EURYDICE" is now on her passage to that port, and is expected to arrive in a day or two, when the S.S.No.1 will be held, and I am directed to request that you will be so good as to arrange for either Mr. Hamilton or Mr. Hand to proceed to Appledore and join the local Surveyor in the survey. Mr. Westcott is being instructed to advise you when the vessel will be in dry dock and prepared for survey.

The Society's Surveyors at Glasgow, who are at present in possession of the reports in connection with the case, are being requested to forward the same to the Society's Surveyor at Appledore.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient Servant,

The Surveyors,

CARDIFF.
