7th December, 1903.

Sir,

M.
As it appears from a letter received to-day from the Society's Surveyor at Appledore that the barque "EURYDICE" is now on her passage to that port from the Azores, and is expected to arrive in a day or two when the Special Survey No. 1 will be held, I shall be obliged if you will be so good as to forward the reports on the case which were sent to you on the 30th September last to the Society's Surveyor at Appledore.

I may add that the Cardiff Surveyors are being requested to arrange for either Mr. Hamilton or Mr. Hand to join the Appledore Surveyor in the survey.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Secretary.

T.J. Dodd Esq.,

GLASGOW.
