15th September 1898.

Sir,

SS. No. 2

With reference to the ~~survey~~ now long overdue in the case of the ship "AGNES ORWALL", I am directed to acquaint you that the vessel has been allowed to remain as classed in the Society's Register Book subject to the whole of the requirements of the rules for this inspection being completed without fail on her arrival at your port whether she is to proceed direct from East London.

For your information I may add that the vessel appears to have arrived at East London on the 15th ultimo.

I have therefore to request that you will give the case the necessary attention.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

pro Secretary.

R. Pollock, Esq.,

SYDNEY.
