In November last the Owners stated that they had given instructions to the Master to have this survey held at Marseilles or Constantinople.

In reply to enquiry the Surveyor at Constantinople now writes that no steps have yet been taken in regard to the survey, as far as he can learn, except that the vessel, until a few weeks ago, was lying up for a long period at Seio, where she was being scaled, cleaned, &c., He is informed that she will arrive at his port in a few days in ballast, and he will endeavour to obtain from the Captain some information in regard to the matter, and will write
