Nantes,

19th January 1910*The SecretaryLloyd's Register of Shipping
London.Sir,*

In reply to your letter of the 15th inst. having reference to the case of the Barge "East Croft" I respectfully beg to inform you that I wrote at once to the Shipbroker at St. Nazaire, asking him whether the vessel was still laid up at that port. I have to-day received his reply stating that the vessel is still at St. Nazaire.

No further steps whatever have been taken to submit her for the necessary Special Survey.

I am SirYour obedient servantW. Kerr.
