Dear Sir,

Your favor 16th inst. duly to hand, contents of which had our best attention.

We beg to inform you that our s.s. Etna when at Genoa in August last was furnished with a new anchor of 2,000 weight to replace the one lost.

The ship instead to go to Cardiff, as previously advised, was compelled to Danube.

The present for assuring you that when the steamer ~~my~~ will arrive at Genoa, viz. in about a fortnight, we shall invite your Society's Surveyors for testing the anchor.

We remain, yours truly
