

18th September 1900

Gentlemen,

With reference to your report to 1993 on the steamer Etna, I have to acquaint you that I am informed by the Society's surveyors at Genoa that an anchor has been supplied to this vessel, but no test marks were found on the same.

The Captain states that this anchor will be tested on the vessel's arrival at your port & I shall, therefore, be glad if you will give the case attention.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,
