Reference

" CLAN MACNAB ".

Dear Sir,

I am in due receipt of your favours S dated aug.2 1933. contents of which duly noted.

Of course I will take advantage of this experience and obtain advice of your office in future cases.

Regarding the extract of the letters from the master and Chief Engineer of the CLAN MACNAB I do not agree with the contents of the last alinea.

Apparantly the disconnecting and transport to the work shop of the drydock Coytakes a lot of time and as I was informed by the Master that he would cable to his Owners and reply was in our possession in time no delay has been caused at all.

Their has only be a dispute concerning the best way of repairs and I agree that my adviser did not guide me in a good way, for which I beg you pardon.

I am ,Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,
