QUESTION.

ANSWER.

With reference to my inquiry of 29th October and your reply of the 5th November, 1936, respecting the above vessel, I shall be glad if you will kindly let me know whether anything has yet transpired regarding her ultimate disposal.

Until her fate is decided upon, particulars must remain in the Register, and, in these circumstances, it is proposed only to make an annual inquiry regarding the case. I shall, however, be glad if you will kindly let me know if at any time in the interim anything definite transpires.

Date: 6th January 1938.

There is no alteration regarding the position of this vessel and nothing has been decided as to her ultimate disposal.

In the event of anything being decided regarding her disposal, I will at once advise you of this.
