12th December, 1932.

Dear Sir,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th instant relative to the steamer "HANNAH", and in reply to your enquiry to inform you that the remeasurement survey of this ship was carried out by the Society's Surveyor at Ipswich and an account for the Convention fee of £8.10.0 plus Expenses £1.13.0 was rendered from this Office on the 5th ultimo to Messrs. W. Tully & Co., Ltd., of Hull, but according to the records here has not yet been paid.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

pro Secretary.

A. Sunden, Esq.,

MALMO.
