20th April, 1932.

Dear Sirs,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 19th instant respecting the steamer "LEO", and in reply I shall be glad if you will inform the Owners that as "Timber" freeboards are not required the requirements 7 to 11 inclusive as detailed in my letter of the 18th instant need not be complied with.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

The Surveyors,

HULL.
