SOURCE OF INFORMATION.

MINESWEEPER LOST

The Secretary of the Admiralty regrets to announce that his Majesty's minesweeper Aragonite, of 315 tons, was damaged by a mine and subsequently sank on Wednesday. Four ratings were injured and their next-of-kin have been informed. The Aragonite sank off the South-East Coast, and the crew of 17 were picked up by tugs. The four injured men were seriously hurt. Huge volumes of water were thrown into the air by the explosion, and many people on the promenade of a coastal town heard the explosion.

MINESWEEPER SUNK

The Admiralty announces that H.M. minesweeper Aragonite, of 315 tons, was damaged by a mine and subsequently sank on Wednesday. Four ratings were injured. The vessel sank off the South-East Coast after striking what was thought to be a magnetic mine. Two tugs picked up all the crew and attempted to tow the rapidly sinking trawler to land, but before they could beach her she heeled over on her side and sank. Most of the crew are from Lowestoft and Grimsby. The four injured were seriously hurt.
