

I beg to thank you for your cablegram of the

whh8-0186

List 7.3.30

steamer Lloyd's Register
SULTAN STAR.—London, Mar. 6.—The following radio, dated Mar. 5, has been received from the master of the steamer Napier Star via St. Vincent (C.V.):—Passed steamer Sultan Star midnight proceeding St. Vincent. Do not require our assistance.

*Days
list
11/3/30*

SULTAN STAR.—London, Mar. 10.—The following information has been received: Salvage vessel Seefalke connected with the steamer Sultan Star at 10 a.m. Mar. 9, and is towing her to the River Mersey.

—London, Mar. 10.—With reference to the report emanating from Reuter in issue of Mar. 10, the owners of the steamer Sultan Star state: The tug Seefalke proceeded from St. Vincent (C.V.) to take the Sultan Star in tow to Liverpool by arrangement between ourselves and the tug owners. The Sultan Star was not in distress, and our steamer Stuart Star had been escorting her back to St. Vincent (C.V.) until the tug was able to get out to take her in tow.

17.3.30
SULTAN STAR.—London, Mar. 15.—Tug Seefalke, towing steamer Sultan Star, at 6 p.m. on Mar. 14 was in lat. 27 17 N., long. 15 51 W.

Las Palmas, Mar. 15.—Steamer Sultan Star and tug Seefalke arrived here to-day.

whh
Lloyd's list 6.3.30
SULTAN STAR.—St. Vincent (C.V.), Mar. 7.—Following received by wireless from British steamer Sultan Star: Tug Seefalke meeting towing home.

Lloyd's list 10/3/30
SULTAN STAR.—Hamburg, Mar. 8.—Tug Seefalke reports that she has encountered off St. Vincent the British steamer Sultan Star, in distress. The Seefalke is towing the Sultan Star to Liverpool.—Reuter.

whh
Lloyd's Register
Foundation
whh

whh8-0187

187/30
SULTAN STAR.—Las Palmas, Mar. 16.—
British steamer Sultan Star and tug Seefalke left here yesterday for Birkenhead.

Land's End Wireless Station, Mar. 17.—Steamer Sultan Star signalled at 6 7 a.m. to-day, 1400 miles south.

© 2020

Lloyd's Register
Foundation