

Lloyd's Register of Shipping,

Toldbodgaten 20,

Oslo, 1st May 1931

Dear Sir,

We duly received your letter of the 28th ultimo respecting the motor vessel "PIONER" and beg to inform you that the sea connections were examined while the vessel was in drydock, but the pumping arrangements, fuel storage and daily service tanks were not examined now, but the same can be examined on the vessel's return from the whaling grounds next autumn.

We are, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully
