Dear Sir,

S.S. "LINDENBANK".

We are pleased to learn from our Superintendent that your surveyor at Avonmouth has re-measured the above vessel. We would be glad to learn from you at your earliest what work is necessary to carry out to comply with the new load line requirements. The vessel leaves Avonmouth tomorrow for Antwerp to complete discharge, and will probably drydock there, and we should like to put this work in hand. You might also please advise us what extra immersion is allowable, and when it will be in order to have the new markings cut in, and where it can be done.

Thanking you in anticipation of an early reply.

Yours faithfully,
