ENCLOSURE

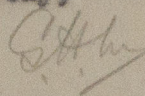

6th August, 1936.

My dear Davies,

Will you be good enough to endeavour to get a settlement of the enclosed small account which has been rendered several times but is still unpaid.

Kindest regards and trusting you have had a good holiday,

Yours sincerely,

S. R. Davies, Esq.,

NEWCASTLE ON TYNE.

P.S. We are rendering an account to the Board of Trade to-day for £12.12.0 for Mr. Akester and Mr. Riddell's expenses in connexion with the inquiry into the loss of the "JOSEPH MEDILL". Will you kindly let me know if the Surveyors have drawn these expenses from Newcastle Petty Cash? If not I think the best plan will be to send cheques when we receive a settlement from the Board of Trade, if you agree.
