Dear Sir,

I have today been informed officially that the above named tanker has been condemned by the Owner's Superintendents (Vacuum Oil Company) in New York, as the repairs carried out in June this year, at Bilbao, have not remedied the defects in the cargo space which is in a bad condition.

The vessel is now lying in this port and is to be sold to be broken up.

Any further information heard in this case will be at once advised to you.

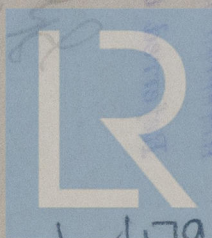

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,
