The Secretary,
Lloyd's Register of Shipping,
71, Fenchurch Street, E.C. 3,

Dear Sirs,

s.s "PURLEY OAKS": In reply to your letter of yesterday we have just decided to sell this vessel (now at Dordrecht) for breaking-up, but we do not know yet whether we shall dispose of her as she lies, or whether it will be necessary for us to give with the vessel a sea-worthiness certificate, so that she may be able to load one outward cargo. In the latter event we shall of course apply to you so that the necessary general examination of the vessel may be made, but in any case we shall keep you posted with what we propose to do.

Yours faithfully,

For T. E. EVANS & COMPANY LTD.

J. E. Evans
Director.

Dear Sirs,

a.s. "PUNJAB LARK": In reply to your letter of yesterday we have just decided to sell this vessel (now at Dordrecht) for breaking-up, but we do not know yet whether we shall dispose of her as an idea, or whether it will be necessary for us to give with the vessel a sea-worthiness certificate, so that she may be able to load one outward cargo. In the latter event we shall of course apply to you so that the necessary general examination of the vessel may be made, but in any case we shall keep you posted with what we propose to do.

Yours faithfully,

For T. E. EVANS & COMPANY LTD.
