Sprott Road, Ballard Estate,

Bombay, 18th JANUARY 1939.

The Secretary,
London.

Dear Sir,

I beg to advise you that the steamer "CAMBAY STAR", owned by the Eastern Steam Nav. Co. of this port, has apparently been lost at sea with all hands.

One damaged life-boat, some bales of cotton and a dead seaman have been located about 120 miles from Bombay and a search for any survivors is still being made.

A Government enquiry will be held in due course and I will advise you of the result when it ^{is} available.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

H. S. Southwell
