Lloyd's Register of British & Foreign Shipping,

71, Fenchurch Street, E.C.

4th April, 1913.

Sir,

I have to confirm the following telegram which I despatched to you today:-

"Have received urgent request from William Hamilton & Co., Shipbuilders, Port Glasgow, that Proving House should work overtime to complete testing ninety fathoms $1\frac{3}{8}$ " stud link stream chain from Green, Old Hill, for 'COLUSA' now at Cardiff in order that chain may be forwarded to Cardiff first passenger train tomorrow. Committee desire that you should arrange accordingly if at all possible.
Wire Hamilton when and how despatched"

It will of course be understood that all extra expense connected with overtime in this case should be included in the account which you render for the testing of the chain.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Secretary.

Mr. H. Green,

Lloyd's Proving House,

NETHERTON,

near Dudley.
