16th January, 1938.

Dear Sir,

M. I am in receipt of your letter of the 13th instant together with a circular one respecting the date on which the adjourned hearing into the circumstances attending the loss of the s.s. "ITALIAN PRINCE" is to be held, and I may say that the necessary arrangements have been made for the attendance of Messrs. Bryden, Chapman and Brooke-Smith.

Thanking you for your attention,

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.
