Recd. 21st June, 1937

CALCUTTA, 31st May, 1937.

The Secretary,
LONDON.

Am 3 25/6

Dear Sir,

I am in receipt of your classing letter dated the 7th May 1937.

"ANGORA" - Negotiations are now in hand for the sale of this vessel for breaking up purposes only, and it is anticipated she will leave for a Japanese or an Indian port in the near future where this work will be carried out. The usual general survey of the hull, machinery and boilers will be held before the vessel leaves Calcutta.

("ARANKOLA" - the position of this vessel is similar to the above).

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

etc.....
