M.

Dear Sir,

I beg to enclose a letter dated the 16th instant, which has been received from Mr. Dunsmuir in reference to the Formal Investigation into the loss of the S.S. "RUMORE", which concluded to-day.

The reports and plans of the vessel, together with the correspondence forwarded by you, are being returned under separate cover and I may say that, as requested in your letter of the 22nd ultimo, the Surveyors' Journals are being returned to the Society's Surveyors at Leith.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

A. R. ...
Secretary to the
Glasgow Committee.

The Secretary,

LONDON.
