Dear Sir,

S.S. "RUMORE."

Thank you for your letter of yesterday's date, in which you inform me that Mr. R. Dunsmuir, Senior Surveyor in your Glasgow office, will represent the Society at the Inquiry.

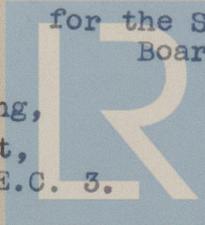

I have not yet seen Mr. Dunsmuir's statement of evidence, but I always understood that the Survey Reports and load line particulars were kept in your London office. It seems therefore likely that although Mr. Dunsmuir will be able to speak to matters which occurred at Glasgow, he would not be able to produce a full set of Survey Reports. The Court will no doubt insist that they are produced by the person in whose proper custody they are kept.

Yours faithfully,

E. Rowland Darcy

for the Solicitor,
Board of Trade.
