Dear Sirs,

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 31st ultimo, enclosing the form of undertaking, duly signed, in connexion with the steamer "INVERAVON", at present laid up off Southend; and I have to thank you for your attention in the matter.

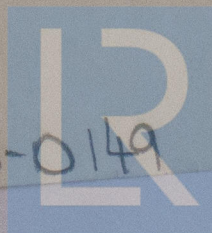

With regard to the enquiry in the second paragraph of your letter, I may say that in the event of your desiring to move the vessel to a suitable repairing port, the Committee will be pleased to give the case their consideration, upon hearing from you when the time comes for this to be done.

I am, Dear Sirs,
Yours faithfully,

pro Secretary.
