Dear Sir,

S.S. "INVERAVON".

Your Ref:-"H".

Replying to your letter of yesterday, we confirm that the steamer "Inveravon" is still laid up off Southend and as there is no immediate likelihood of her being re-commissioned we have signed the form which you enclosed with your letter under reply and return it to you herewith.

In doing so we assume that if we should at any time wish to remove the "Inveravon" to a suitable repairing port, you will be able to arrange for your Surveyors to make an examination and provided everything is found in order issue an interim certificate for such short passage.

Yours truly,

ANGLO-AMERICAN OIL CO., LTD.
