LONDON

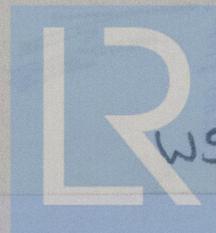

We have received this morning from Messrs. Ingledew & Co. a copy of the Court's Answers to the Questions and of the Annex to the Answers and we enclose a copy herewith.

As you will see no criticism of any kind is made by the Court of the Society or the Society's surveyors but the last two pages of the Annex contains some general observations suggesting that in certain respects existing regulations are inadequate.

Yours faithfully,

P. W. Garrett

The Secretary,
