The Secretary,
LONDON.

Dear Sir,

s.s. "AIKLEAF".

In reply to your letter of the 14th instant we beg to state we are informed by Messrs. Germain, Dixon & Co. that this vessel was sold by them to The Nailsea Shipping Co. Ltd. of Cardiff.

It is rumoured that she has since again changed hands but the local Agents for the Nailsea Co. state they are unable to give us any information on this point, and that their Watchman is still on board the vessel, which continues at present laid up in the Tyne. We are, in the circumstances, desiring the Cardiff Surveyors to make further enquiries of the Nailsea Co. and have forwarded them copy of this correspondence for their information.

We are, Dear Sir,
Yours faithfully,
THE SURVEYORS,

Dear Sir,

S.S. "ALMA"

In reply to your letter of the 14th instant we beg to state we are informed by Messrs. Garmain, Dixon & Co. that this vessel was sold by them to The Wallace Shipping Co. Ltd. of Cardiff. It is rumoured that she has since again changed hands but the local Agents for the Wallace Co. state they are unable to give us any information on this point, and that their Wharfedale is still on board the vessel which continues at present laid up in the Tyne. We are, in the circumstances, desiring the Cardiff Surveyors to make enquiries of the Wallace Co. and have forwarded them copy of this correspondence for their information.

We are, Dear Sir,
Yours faithfully,
The Surveyors
