

Lloyd's Register of Shipping,

3, Market Street,

Falmouth, 24th November, 1933.

Sir,

Referring to your letter of the 26th October regarding steamer "PAPANUI" which was stated to have been sold to Italian purchasers for breaking up.

As requested we carried out a general examination on hull and supplied an interim certificate to enable the vessel to take a non-perishable cargo to Italy as per our report of 25.10.33.

We have since been informed that this vessel has been sold to the Japanese but we shall be glad if you will communicate the Owners and advise us on this matter.

We are, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

The Surveyors
