

Lloyd's Register of Shipping,

55, Fawcett Street,

Sunderland, 11th March, 1938.

Reference

Dear Sir,

With reference to our Report No. 31997 on the S.S. "TAYLOR", we regret to state that the first date of survey on the machinery report, viz. December 22nd should have been entered as a ship visit. The entries on the reports, in order to agree with the respective Journals, should therefore read:-

Ship: Dec. 22 - 26 = 4 visits.

Machinery: Dec. 23 = 1 visit.

and we shall be glad if the necessary correction can be made on the documents in question.

We are, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,
THE SURVEYORS, PER:

A. Pickworth.

? Is it necessary to alter report at this stage as all parties to the enquiry have got their copies.

If the dates are altered and Mr. Horne is credited with 1 ship visit. he should have signed the report.

The Secretary,

LONDON.

referred to Mr. Hill.
