LONDON

12, ROGER PARK TERRACE,
SUNDERLAND

16th July 1935.

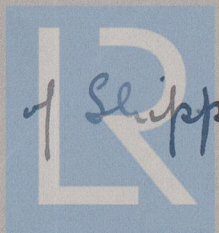

Dear Sir,

With reference to my recent visit to London in connexion with the "Millpool" enquiry, it will be recalled that a subsistence allowance of 25/- per day was given to me for those days not provided for by H.M. Customs.

I now beg to inform you that since returning home, a two further days allowance has been paid to me through the Customs House, and in consequence I return herewith £2-10-0, i.e. 2 days at 25/- per day already received from the Society.

I am, Dear Sir,
Yours faithfully
A. Urwin
