Dear Sirs,

S.S. "MILLPOOL".

I am in receipt of your letter of the 4th instant, forwarding the memorandum which you have prepared setting forth the history and constitution of the Society in connexion with the above case, and have to thank you for the remarks contained therein, which are carefully noted.

With regard thereto I have to confirm the telephone conversation of this afternoon in which it was pointed out that in Section 7, which you quote, the phrase "the Chairman, or in his absence, the Deputy Chairman of the Corporation of Lloyd's" had been omitted, and have to thank you for your assurance that this will be rectified.

I also have to acknowledge the receipt of your further letter of today's date enclosing a list of provisional questions which the Court will be asked to answer in this case, and have shown these to Dr. Montgomerie and Mr. Watt.

I am, Dear Sirs,
Yours faithfully,

Messrs. Parker Garrett & Co.,
