The Secretary,
LONDON.

Dear Sir,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 3rd August 1934 with reference to the Donkey Boiler Survey of the motorship "VICTORIA", and in reply wish to state that the Agents at this port have informed me that she is now at the Islands and is expected at Port Adelaide about the 15th October.

I have forwarded a copy of your letter to the Society's Surveyor at that port with instructions to give the matter his attention on the vessel's arrival.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "R. J. Williams". The signature is written in a cursive style and is underlined with a single horizontal line.
