10th October, 1901.

Gentlemen,

I am in receipt of Mr. Champness's letter of yesterday's date, and note that the ceiling in the holds of the new Steamers "SOESTDYK", "AMSTELDYK" and "SLOTTERDYK", building by Messrs. Furness, Withy & Co., for the Holland-America Line, has been omitted at the request of the Owners.

A letter from the Owners to this effect has also been received today.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient Servant,

Secretary.

The Surveyors,

WEST HARTLEPOOL.
